About SASS' AlUla

Set in the UNESCO World Heritage site of AlUla, SASS' AlUla, a sister brand of SASS' Monaco, invites diners for vibrant culinary evenings from mid-November to early February 2025.

The restaurant offers elaborate menus crafted by our Chef from SASS' Monaco, featuring the beloved SASS' Mediterranean classics including an exquisite array of homemade pasta, meats, seafood, and delectable desserts. During their dining experience, guests will also uncover the flavors of Uruguay through our open fire live-cooking spot, with selected specialties including meats and vegetables meticulously prepared with techniques from ancient pampas and various styles of cooking in high and low temperatures.

The baroque-inspired open-air design reflects SASS' Monaco, creating a luxurious and sassy atmosphere. Guests can enjoy unforgettable festive experiences under the desert sky, complemented by a curated soundscape and lively DJ performances.
